

Disability and the Holocaust - We Shall Not Forget Sunday 11th May 2008

An event to remember the disabled people who were killed in the Holocaust and examine how the Holocaust Centre can represent this 'hidden history'

Venue: The Holocaust Centre in partnership with the Nottinghamshire Disabled People's Movement

Programme

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 10.00 – 10.30 | Arrival and refreshments |
| 10.30 – 10.40 | Introduction to programme (Heather Hollins, Access and Heritage Officer, The Holocaust Centre) |
| 10.40 – 10.55 | Welcome to Centre (Dr. Stephen Smith, Holocaust Centre Director) |
| 10.55 – 11.15 | Why it's important to uncover this 'hidden history' (Nottinghamshire Disabled People's Movement) |
| 11.15 – 11.45 | What is the history of disabled people's experiences of the Holocaust? (Liz Crow, Disability Film Director and Producer) |
| 11.45 – 12.00 | Deaf culture and the Holocaust (Ricki Westbury, Director of Disability Access Services) |
| 12.00 – 12.30 | Personal testimony (Hans Cohn, MBE, a disabled survivor of the Holocaust) |
| 12.30 – 1.30 | Lunch |
| 1.30 – 2.30 | Tour of the Centre |
| 2.30 – 3.15 | Dedication of the plaque and rose in the memorial gardens and candle lighting ceremony |
| 3.15 – 3.30 | Unveiling of The Pioneers Youth Disability Forum's plans for the UK's first permanent memorial sculpture |
| 3.30 – 4.00 | The Holocaust Centre plans to improve access issues and the representation of Deaf and disabled people's experiences of the Holocaust |
| 4.00 – 4.30 | Questions and feedback session |
| 4.30 – 5.00 | Refreshments |